

Middle School Math Teacher

The Harpeth Hall School seeks a middle school math teacher. We are looking for a teacher who demonstrates excellence in the classroom, supports educational and leadership opportunities for girls, encourages students to stretch their minds and expand their sense of self and enjoys working collaboratively with an engaged group of colleagues. The position is full-time and exempt.

Harpeth Hall is committed to an inclusive program, and candidates with a demonstrated commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion work are encouraged to apply. Candidates should be committed to uplifting multiple perspectives and enthusiastic about preparing girls and young women for a future filled with possibilities and purpose.

The ideal candidate is an experienced educator capable of teaching various levels of middle school math. Our middle school team is seeking an innovative teacher who understands the best possible way to engage and inspire middle-school-age girls. The ability to communicate clearly and effectively with students, colleagues, and families, both orally and in writing, is essential. Professionalism, a positive outlook, a good sense of humor, and a student-centered approach to middle school teaching are also highly valued.

A bachelor's degree is required. Experience in curriculum development, full-time teaching experience, and a master's degree are preferred. Comfort and familiarity with the use of relevant technology to enhance learning are also essential.

Candidates should complete an online application and submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and a brief statement of educational philosophy.

ABOUT HARPETH HALL

Harpeth Hall offers an unmatched environment for educational excellence. Located in a flourishing city with a legacy and devotion to higher learning, Harpeth Hall's 44-acre campus features exceptional teaching spaces that empower dynamic instruction both in and out of the classroom. Our students rise to intellectual challenges, seek knowledge, and apply what they learn to better understand themselves and others in the world around them. Our faculty members enjoy a supportive and cooperative work environment and excellent employee benefits.

Our faculty and staff embrace a synergy of creativity and collaboration. We seek candidates who are committed to professional growth, who are eager to work with colleagues towards achieving departmental goals, and who can champion critical thinking, inspire intellectual curiosity, and develop confidence in our students. We support the lifelong learning of our faculty through the myriad department and division-focused opportunities during the school year, in addition to grants for summer projects, and a personal professional development allocation for each faculty member.

We believe that to be an excellent school, we must cultivate a diverse, equitable, and inclusive environment in which to teach and learn. Diverse perspectives within our school population expand ideas, create connections, build understanding, and offer important skills and experiences from which the entire community can benefit.

An independent school in Nashville, Tennessee, Harpeth Hall believes every girl deserves an excellent education where ambitions become achievements. We welcome 720 students in 5th through 12 grades and 115 faculty members.

Our school community is built around a sense of place, a shared purpose, a feeling of belonging, and the strength of our connections to each other and the world. We intentionally affirm each person's unique identity and believe in the dignity, power, and potential of every individual.

At Harpeth Hall, we are wholeheartedly committed to educating girls and young women to think critically, to lead confidently, and to live honorably.

For more information about joining our Harpeth Hall faculty, please visit www.harpethhall.org/about/career-opportunities.